

I am writing against rule changes that would allow LPFM to force my K-LOVE off the air. K-Love provides me with inspirational music, clean family programming for my family, and objective news coverage including religious news. K-Love allows me to stay connected to other Christians around the world and in my community. K-Love is a family station that inspires and encourages high moral values. Please preserve this station for me, my family, and my community.